CAMP STAFF COVENANT AGREEMENT & BOUNDARY TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

While serving as volunteer staff with the Northern California Nevada Conference UCC, I will not discriminate against any person because of their age, gender identity, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, dis/ability, or marital status. I will strive to uphold an environment that honors our differences and values our distinct identities.

I affirm that I have never been fired, terminated, or censored, or faced review from any employment or volunteer activity due to an attempt to, or an engagement in discrimination, harassment, exploitation, physical abuse, or drug or alcohol related activities. If I have, I agree to attach an explanation on an attached page. I have never been required to participate in a reconciliation process as a result of breaking said covenant at a NCNC-UCC youth event. If I have, I have provided names and contact information for the persons who oversaw my process of reconciliation along with a description of that process for myself.

I understand that Boundary Training is required every three years for all camp staff. Authorized Ministers with NCNC standing and teachers may provide certification of the Boundary Training they have taken as part of their professional requirements. All others must attend the NCNC training.

- I will plan to attend the April 4 Boundary Training.
- I will plan to attend the June 13 Boundary Training.
- I have taken NCNC Boundary Training in the past three years. Date taken: _____
- I am an NCNC Authorized Minister with current Boundary Training.
- I am a teacher and will provide certification of my Boundary Training.
